Objective : To provide Motorola equipment for training purposes in major regional offices.

Needs Assessment : The client required the equipment to be packaged in such a way that allowed for easy storage and immediate dispatch in emergency training situations.

Equipment & Supplies : Motorola Transceivers, Quick Chargers, Headsets, Transport Cases & Programming Cables

Supply Chain & Logistics : IPA USA worked in collaboration with IPA BV in Holland to source and ship these items. We also created the template for the cases to ensure the integrity of the equipment through shipments, as well as ease of transport in the field.

Support & After-sales : IPA offered warranty support to South Africa & Germany who experienced damages receivers as a result of heavy use in the field.
